0240-3-18-.01 INSTITUTIONAL POLICY STATEMENT.

- (1) Pellissippi State Technical Community College students are citizens of the state, local, and national governments, and of the academic community and are, therefore, expected to conduct themselves as law-abiding members of each community at all times.

Admission to Pellissippi State carries with it special privileges and imposes special responsibilities apart from those rights and duties enjoyed by non-students. In recognition of the special relationship that exists between the College and the academic community that it seeks to serve, the Tennessee Board of Regents (TBR) has authorized the president of Pellissippi State under its jurisdiction to take such action, as may be necessary, to maintain campus conditions and preserve the integrity of the College and its educational environment.

- (2) Pursuant to this authorization, the College has developed the following regulations that are intended to govern student conduct on the campus. In addition, students are subject to all national, state, and local laws and ordinances. If a student's violation of such laws or ordinances also adversely affects Pellissippi State's pursuit of its educational objectives, the College may enforce its own regulations regardless of any proceedings instituted by other authorities. Conversely, violation of any section of these regulations may subject a student to disciplinary measures by the College whether or not such conduct is simultaneously in violation of state, local, or national laws.

0240-3-18-.04 DISCIPLINARY SANCTIONS.

- (1) Upon determination that a student or organization has violated any of the rules, regulations or disciplinary offenses set forth in these Regulations, the following disciplinary sanctions may be imposed, either singly or in combination, by the appropriate Pellissippi State officials.

In addition, a reprimand does remain on file in a student's personnel record for a period of one year.

  - (g) Expulsion. Expulsion entails a permanent separation from Pellissippi State. The imposition of this sanction does become a part of the student's permanent record and is a permanent bar to his or her readmission to Pellissippi State.
  - (h) Interim or Summary Suspension. Though as a general rule, the status of a student accused of violations of College regulations should not be altered until a final determination has been made in regard to the charges against the student, summary suspension may be imposed upon a finding by the associate vice president of student affairs and satellite campuses or his/her designated representative that the continued presence of the accused on campus constitutes the following: an immediate threat to the physical safety and well-being of the accused, or any other members of the Pellissippi State community, or its guests; destruction of property; or the substantial disruption of classroom or the campus activities. In any case of immediate suspension,
